CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS
(Direct Copyright Infringement – Public Performance)

37. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges and incorporates herein by reference all the foregoing allegations as if set forth herein.

38. Each Defendant, without permission or consent of Plaintiffs, and without authority, is publicly performing and purporting to authorize the public performance of the Plaintiffs' registered copyrighted musical work. Each Defendant causes this work to be publicly performed upon request by users. Each Defendant's conduct constitutes direct infringement of the Plaintiffs' exclusive rights under the Copyright Act to publicly perform their copyrighted musical work, 17 U.S.C. § 106 (4).

39. Each Defendant's acts of infringement have been willful, intentional, and purposeful, in disregard of and indifferent to the rights of the Plaintiffs.

40. As a direct and proximate result of each Defendant's infringement of Plaintiffs' copyright and exclusive rights under copyright, Plaintiffs are entitled to their actual damages plus each Defendant's profits from infringement, to be proven at trial. Alternatively, Plaintiffs are entitled to the maximum statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504 (c).

41. Plaintiffs are entitled to their costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

42. Each Defendant's conduct is causing and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause Plaintiffs great and irreparable injury that cannot fully be compensated or measured in money. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at a law. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Plaintiffs are entitled to a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to immediately stop making the Film and the Song available for broadcast through their online services.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS
(Direct Copyright Infringement – Reproduction)

43. Plaintiffs repeat and re-allege and incorporate herein by reference all the foregoing allegations as if set forth herein.

44. Each Defendant, without authority, is making, causing to be made, and purporting to authorize the making of unauthorized copies of Plaintiffs registered copyrighted musical work. Each Defendant's conduct constitutes direct infringement of Plaintiffs' exclusive right under the Copyright Act to reproduce their copyrighted works, 17 U.S.C. § 106 (1).

45. Defendants' acts of infringement have been willful, intentional, and purposeful, in disregard of and indifferent to Plaintiffs' rights.

46. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' infringement of Plaintiffs' copyright and exclusive rights under copyright, Plaintiffs are entitled to their actual damages plus each Defendant's profits from infringement, to be proven at trial. Alternatively, Plaintiffs are entitled to the maximum statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504 (c).

47. Plaintiffs are entitled to their costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

48. Defendants' conduct is causing and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause Plaintiffs great and irreparable injury that cannot fully be compensated or measured in money. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Plaintiffs are entitled to a permanent injunction requiring each Defendant to immediately stop making the Film and the Song available for broadcast through their respective services, and immediately cease any reproduction of the Film or the Song.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS
(Inducement of Copyright Infringement)

49. Plaintiffs repeat and re-allege and incorporate herein by reference all the foregoing allegations as if set forth herein.

50. Defendants' subscribers have infringed and are infringing on Plaintiffs' rights in their registered copyrighted musical works by, inter alia, directing the Defendants' services to publicly perform the Film, which includes the Song.

51. Defendants' subscribers are therefore directly infringing Plaintiffs' exclusive rights of reproduction and public performance, under 17 U.S.C. §§106 (1) and (4).

52. Each Defendant is liable under the Copyright Act for inducing the infringing acts of its subscribers. Each Defendant operates its service with the object of promoting its use to publicly perform the works available through the service, including the Film, which contains the Song. By its clear expression and other affirmative steps, each Defendant is unlawfully fostering copyright infringement by its users.

53. Defendants are fully aware that Plaintiffs' musical work is copyrighted and authorized for purchase through various outlets, including lawfully authorized online digital download services, such as Apple's iTunes. Defendants are equally aware that their subscribers are employing Defendants' respective services to unlawfully publicly perform Plaintiffs' copyrighted musical work.

54. Each Defendant intends, encourages, and induces its subscribers to employ its respective service in the fashion described in paragraph 46 above.

55. Defendants' acts of infringement have been willful, intentional, and purposeful, in disregard of and indifferent to Plaintiffs' rights.

56. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' infringement of Plaintiffs' copyright and exclusive rights under copyright, Plaintiffs are entitled to their actual damages plus each Defendant's profits from infringement, to be proven at trial. Alternatively, Plaintiffs are entitled to the maximum statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504 (c).

57. Plaintiffs are entitled to their costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

58. Each Defendant's conduct is causing and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause Plaintiffs great and irreparable injury that cannot fully be compensated or measure in money. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Plaintiffs are entitled to a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to immediately stop making the Film and the Song available for broadcast through their respective services.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS
(Contributory Copyright Infringement)

59. Plaintiffs repeat and re-allege and incorporate herein by reference all the foregoing allegations as if set forth herein.

60. Defendants' subscribers have infringed and are infringing Plaintiffs' rights in their registered copyrighted musical works by, inter alia, directing the Defendants' respective services to publicly perform the Film, which includes the Song.

61. Defendants' subscribers are therefore directly infringing Plaintiffs' exclusive rights of reproduction and public performance, under 17 U.S.C. §§ 106 (1) and (4).

62. Each Defendant is liable as a contributory copyright infringer for the infringing acts of its subscribers. Each Defendant enables, induces, facilitates, and materially contributes to each act of infringement by its subscribers.

63. Each Defendant has actual and constructive knowledge that its subscribers are employing their respective streaming service to copy and publicly perform Plaintiffs' copyrighted work.

64. Acting with this actual and constructive knowledge, Each Defendant enables, facilitates, and materially contributes to its subscribers' copyright infringement, which could not occur without their enablement.

65. Defendants' acts of infringement have been willful, intentional, and purposeful, in disregard of and indifferent to Plaintiffs' rights.

66. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' infringement of Plaintiffs' copyright and exclusive rights under copyright, Plaintiffs are entitled to their actual damages plus each Defendant's profits from infringement, to be proven at trial. Alternatively, Plaintiffs are entitled to the maximum statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504 (c).

67. Plaintiffs are entitled to their costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

68. Each Defendant's conduct is causing and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause Plaintiffs great and irreparable injury that cannot fully be compensated or measured in money. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Plaintiffs are entitled to a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to immediately stop making the Film and the Song available for broadcast through their respective services.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS
(Vicarious Copyright Infringement)

69. Plaintiffs repeat, re-allege and incorporate all the foregoing allegations as if set forth herein.

70. Defendants' subscribers have infringed and are infringing Plaintiffs' rights in their registered copyrighted musical works by, inter alia, directing the Defendants' respective services to publicly perform the Film, which includes the Song.

71. Defendants' subscribers are therefore directly infringing Plaintiffs' exclusive rights of reproduction and public performance, under 17 U.S.C. §§ 106 (1) and (4).

72. Each Defendant is vicariously liable for the infringing acts of their subscribers.

73. Each Defendant has both the right and the ability to supervise its subscribers' infringing conduct, and to prevent its users from infringing Plaintiffs' copyrighted musical work.

74. Defendants significantly and directly benefits from the infringement by their subscribers.

75. Defendants derive substantial revenue tied directly to the volume of subscribers they can attract to their respective services, which they accomplished in substantial part by offering the broadest spectrum of domestic and international content to their subscribers for broadcast.

76. Defendants' acts of infringement have been willful, intentional and purposeful, in disregard of and indifferent to the rights of Plaintiffs.

77. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' infringement of Plaintiffs' copyright and exclusive rights under copyright, Plaintiffs are entitled to their actual damages plus each Defendant's profits from infringement, to be proven at trial. Alternatively, Plaintiffs are entitled to the maximum statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504 (c).

78. Plaintiffs are entitled to their costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

79. Defendants' conduct is causing and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause Plaintiffs great and irreparable injury that cannot fully be compensated or measured in money. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Plaintiffs are entitled to a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to immediately stop making the Film and Song available for broadcast through their respective services.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against each Defendant as follows:

- (a) For a declaration that each Defendant willfully infringed Plaintiffs' copyrights.
- (b) For a permanent injunction requiring that each Defendant and their respective agents, servants, employees, officers, attorneys, successors, licensees, partners, and assigns, and all persons acting in concert or participation with each or any of them, cease directly or indirectly infringing, or causing, enabling, facilitating, encouraging, promoting and inducing or participating in the infringement of any of Plaintiffs' copyrights or exclusive rights protected by the Copyright Act, whether now in existence or hereafter created.
- (c) For actual damages plus each Defendant's profits from infringement, as will be proven at trial, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b). Alternatively, at Plaintiffs' election, statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c).

- (d) For Plaintiff's costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.
- (e) For pre- and post-judgment interest according to law.
- (f) For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
